SUNDAY NOT OBSERVED

By Workmen at the League Island Navy Yard.

WORK ON WARSHIPS PUSHED

Minneapolis and Columbia Almost Ready to Move.

SO IS MONITOR MIANTONOMAH.

The Ram Katahdin Is Having Her Ventilating Apparatus Improved and Is Being Fitted With Necessary Steam Pipes.

Philadelphia, Feb. 28.—League island navy yard literally swarmed with visitors in consequence of the report from Washington that the cruisers Columbia and Minneapolis, the double-turreted monitor Miantonomah and the ram Katahdin had been ordered to go into commission with dispatch.

Both cruisers have skeleton crews aboard, while the monitor has been lying at her dock for several years and the Katahdin since last winter.

None of the naval officials at the navy yard would say anything relating to the future movements of the vessels, but from workmen it was learned that the commission orders had been issued.

This was borne out by the fact that all day a large force of men in the construction and repair departments were actively at work on the Miantonomah and the Katahdin.

Visitors were kept off these boats, and only those having friends among the officers and crews of the cruisers were allowed on board.

THE MIANTONOMAH ALMOST READY.

The repairs to the monitor are all of a minor nature, and will be completed by Tuesday. Over 20 men have already been detailed for her, and it is said her full complement of 150 will be made up as rapidly as possible.

A large force of men were busy on the Katahdin, improving her ventilating apparatus and fitting her with steam pipes. This work will only take a few days.

Sunday work at League island is very unusual, and this activity is taken to indicate that the navy department intends to get the vessels there ready for sailing at a moment's notice.

Late Sunday afternoon steam was gotten up on board the monitor for the purpose of testing her boilers and machinery. In one of the lofts nearly 100 men were at work on small spars and boat-fittings.

Everything is ship shape on the Minneapolis and Columbia, and beyond fitting up their complement of officers and men and taking on coal and provisions, nothing remains to be done.

This will consume about five days at the most, and then both vessels will be ready for active service.

The work of enlisting men will continue until orders to stop have been received from Washington.

PASTORAL LETTER

Blames America for the Prolongation of the Cuban War.

Madrid, Feb. 28.—The cardinal archbishop of Valladolid has published a pastoral letter blaming America for the prolongation of the Cuban war. His eminence says:

"The hypocritical friendship of the United States fosters the rebellion and wastes Spain's resources in order the better to attack her when weakened."

He exhorts all true Spaniards to "unite in defending the rights and honor of the nation." The letter has caused widespread comment.

The Correspondencia Militar, organ of the army, says: "The prevailing impression is that war between Spain and the United States will break out in April."

A former captain general of Cuba (presumably Marshal Martinez Campos), interviewed by a representative of Correspondencia Militar, is reported as saying:

"I never entertained a doubt that if the rebellion were not suppressed before 1898, war with the United States would become an accomplished fact. Unhappily my prophecy will be fulfilled."

"I have the consolation of having done all in my power to avert it, and therefore I do not regret the blame which has been heaped upon me. All that is now possible is that we should all unite to meet the danger that threatens the country!"

Will Not Be Caught Unprepared.

Washington, Feb. 28.—In answer to the question as to what was the meaning of the movements of guns and ammunition Assistant Secretary of War Roosevelt said: "It merely serves to show that the department does not believe there will be any trouble, but neither does it intend to be caught unprepared if there should be trouble."

Alliance Ordered to Sea.

Portsmouth, N. H., Feb. 28.—The first positive orders received at the Portsmouth navy yard since the blowing up of the Maine came Sunday in the shape of an order to send the warship Alliance to sea on April 1. She will be put in first class repair by that time.

Death of Ex-Mayor Blee.

Cleveland, Feb. 28.—Ex-Mayor Robert Blee died of acute pneumonia after an illness of only three days. He was 59 years old. Mr. Blee began life as a brakeman on the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and St. Louis railway. He was frequently promoted and eventually became general superintendent of the road. He was elected mayor of Cleveland on the Democratic ticket in 1893 and served two years.

To Condemn Woodford.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Representative Lewis of Washington offered as an amendment to the sundry civil bill a resolution condemning Minister Woodford for giving a banquet to Spain's cabinet. He declared that he was opposed to feasting the murderers of those whom the nation was burying. The amendment was ruled out on a point of order.

Attempted Assassination.

Prescott, A. T., Feb. 28.—Lieutenant Cordier of the Cuban army, who is here with Captain Majory for the purpose of raising funds to aid the insurgent cause, narrowly escaped death at the hands of an assassin. An unknown man took a shot at the lieutenant and then fled. Cordier fired two shots at the retreating figure but failed to stop the man.

Steamer Burned at Sea.

Boston, Feb. 28.—The British steamer Flower Gate, Captain Barnard, from Palermo to Boston with a cargo of fruit, has arrived in port, having on board Captain Tennant and 31 members of the crew of the British steamer Legislator, bound from Liverpool to Colon with a general cargo. The Legislator was burned at sea on the morning of Feb. 16, and five men were drowned, one burned to death, and four others badly burned.

Severely Punished.

Owingsville, Ky., Feb. 28.—Boon Vallandigham, accused of the betrayal of Miss Sarah Stevens, 18, was married in the courtroom and the case filed away. The accused attempted suicide in a drug store by a dose of strychnine. Vallandigham was indicted by the grand jury for perjury and put under bond for $250, which he gave.

British Steamer Ashore.

Mayport, England, Feb. 28.—The British steamer Bramble, Captain Postlewaite, from Porman Feb. 16 for this port, is ashore near Flimby. Her rudder and propeller are gone and she has apparently been abandoned. The high tides have driven her higher on the beach.

THE COURT OF INQUIRY

In Session in the Key West Federal Courtroom.

A DIVER HAS ALSO RETURNED

It Is Said He Was Too Prone to Divulge Secrets.

REAR ADMIRAL SICARD IS MUM.

Refuses to Discuss American-Spanish Relations, but Says He Has Steam Up and Can Go Wherever He Is Ordered on Short Notice.

Key West, Feb. 28.—The lighthouse tender Mangrove, bearing the members of the court of inquiry, arrived here from Havana at 7 a. m. Sunday.

The court resumed its sessions in the United States district courtroom in the Federal building, and will probably return to Havana Wednesday.

The most important witness to be examined here is Lieutenant Blandin, the officer of the deck when the explosion on the Maine occurred.

Captain Simpson, Chaplain Childwick and Lieutenant Commander Potter came ashore and arranged preliminary details for sessions of the court.

Martin Redding, a diver, returned here. He was taken to Havana to work on the wreck, and his arrival has caused much comment, it being said that he had talked too much at Havana and had been removed in consequence.

On his arrival he held forth at considerable length before a street-corner audience, and but little credence could be given to his numerous statements.

CONFERRED WITH ADMIRAL SICARD.

Rear Admiral Sicard has had frequent conferences with Captain Sampson and other members of the court of inquiry at the hotel. He said: "I think they ought to get away on Wednesday. As yet there is nothing that can be said about their work."

In reply to a question as to the rumored removal of the warships to Cuba, Admiral Sicard said: "The fleet is not moving and I know nothing about its going to Cuba. Still, you know, I have steam up and could go anywhere if ordered."

He was asked if anything had happened to justify the statement that the situation was more serious now than it had been, and he replied: "They know at Washington about that. Just how strained our relations are with Spain I am unable to say."

The excitement after the arrival of the Cuban filibusters, headed by General Nunez and Captain John O'Brien, completely eclipsed all the doings and sayings of the court of inquiry officers. Their quick departure prevented very much being learned as to the expedition, but the Cubans here are elated.

An expedition has been preparing to get away from Key West for some time, but it probably will suffer another delay, as the plot has leaked out through two Spanish spies.

SUPERFICIAL AND BARREN

Is What Is Said of the Maine Disaster Investigation.

Havana, Feb. 28.—Many Americans and some Spaniards here insist that the investigation into the Maine disaster has thus far been superficial and barren of vital results.

They claim that, though nearly two weeks have passed, no knowledge has been gained as to the condition of the forward part of the hull, or as to whether the 6 or 10-inch ammunition magazines forward to the starboard exploded.

They insist, moreover, that expert divers, with enough experience to make drawings of the condition of things submarine, might have been at work a week ago, and might have settled the question as to the magazines, at least, ere this.

Those who hold these views demand that the hull forward should be raised without further loss of time and before it has sunk too deep in 40 feet of soft mud.

There are some who go so far as to charge the United States government with adopting the Spanish policy of delay until the disaster shall be partially forgotten or discounted.

Many of the Spanish officials are said to entertain that this is the case, and to be very well pleased with the notion.

MADE WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE.

On the other hand, however, good judges say that all criticism in this vein is made without a knowledge of the facts, and no one save the members of the court of inquiry and their superiors is aware of all the testimony developed or of what submarine plans have been made.

Those also add that there is no use trying to raise the hull until the wreckage of armor, superstructure, engines, docks, guns and masts has been taken out. To do this will take time, and the apparatus for the work can only be found in the north.

But even the most moderate strongly deprecates any more delay than is absolutely necessary, while all agree that the American people are not likely to forget so readily.

The court of inquiry is as quiet as the statue of Memnon, as dignified and as stern. Its members are courteous, but they feel the deep responsibility resting upon them.

To talk indiscreetly might not only cost a commission, no matter how high the rank of the holder, but would surely precipitate trouble either here or in the United States.

Sagasta Is Astonished.

Madrid, Feb. 28.—Senor Sagasta, commenting upon an alleged interview with Prince Bismarck, in which the latter is represented as suggesting that the Cuban trouble should be submitted to the powers for arbitration, expressed astonishment that such an idea could emanate from Prince Bismarck, and declared emphatically that "nothing but ignorance of the question could inspire the notion that Spain would suffer foreign intrusion or submit to arbitration in her indisputable rights of sovereignty."

Senor Polo y Barnabe Coming.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Senor Du Bose, the Spanish charge d'affaires, received a cablegram from the minister of state at Madrid saying that the new minister to the United States, Senor Polo y Barnabe, has sailed from Gibraltar. He will be in Washington in about 10 days.

No Mines in Havana Harbor.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt says an examination of the map said to show mines in Havana harbor discloses that no such mines are on the map.

Spaniards Are Jubilant.

Madrid, Feb. 28.—The authorities are jubilant over the receipt of important favorable information from Havana with reference to the insurrection.

A Cemetery Deal Criticized.

London, Feb. 28.—Truth has begun to expose what is said to be a scandal in regard to the sale of the American cemetery at Jerusalem by the American Presbyterian board of foreign missions. The sale is alleged to have been made in order to replenish the coffers of the board, and secrecy was observed because the sale was contrary to Turkish laws. Friends of Englishmen whose remains had been buried there are said to have protested to the state department at Washington, to the American minister at Constantinople and to the foreign office, but it is said they have been unable to obtain redress, and now ask the newspapers to ventilate the matter.

Policeman Killed.

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 28.—Single-handed, facing disadvantages of numbers and a murderous ambush in the dark, Officer Louis Keller of the South Bend police fought grimly to his death. One of the desperate band of alleged burglars who killed him was mortally wounded. The rest of Keller's adversaries, four in number, are prisoners in jail, and public indignation is at fever heat. Keller noticed the back door of a cigar store unlocked and went in to investigate, when the fusillade began.

Must Have a Fall.

Washington, Feb. 28.—After being pronounced physically unfit for promotion by one naval board, to sound to be retired by another and physically qualified for promotion by a third board, Captain Henry B. Robeson, commandant of the Portsmouth (N. H.) navy yard, has at last been recommended to the president for promotion and will succeed to the vacancy in the grade of commodore to be created by the retirement this month of Admiral Selfridge.

Concessions to an English Company.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The Nicaraguan government has made some changes in the concession to the English Atlas company for the construction of its railroads across the isthmus, and these changes are reported to the state department by Consul Sorsby at San Juan del Norte. He says that one of the amendments paves the way for claims for damages by the Atlas company and for diplomatic contention in the event of the construction of a canal.

Brewery Falls.

San Francisco, Feb. 28.—The San Francisco Stock brewery has given its creditors the alternative of a settlement on the basis of 25 cents on the dollar or forcing the corporation to go through insolvency. The concern has deeded its property to the German Savings and Loans society, which held a mortgage for $47,000 and was about to foreclose. The unsecured liabilities aggregate $67,000, distributed among 22 creditors.

MAY SOLVE A MYSTERY

Police on the Trail of the Murderers of Mrs. Stolz.

IMPORTANT CLEWS FOUND.

Every Bit of Information Is Carefully Guarded and Will Not Be Made Public Until Arrests Have Been Made.

Portland, Ind., Feb. 28.—The authorities have unearthed some very important clues which in a few days may lead to the detection and arrest of the murderers of Mrs. Louisa Stolz, who was found bound, gagged and dead two weeks ago and her house robbed.

The nature of the discoveries is guarded jealously, and not a thing in connection with it allowed to leak out, but enough has been learned that is of grave importance.

The postal card, bandanna and blue handkerchief and the nugget scarfpin are being carefully looked after, and these are thought to have furnished, from some source, the new information.

Mrs. Smith of West Walnut street claims that a man entered her house and made her give up all the money there while another stood guard outside.

They threatened her with an awful penalty in case she disclosed anything, and she kept still through fear.

Will Be Dissected.

Wabash, Ind., Feb. 28.—Adolph Len, who is a sufferer from cancer, informed his local physician that he had so disposed of his property that all expenses for the remainder of his existence would be provided for, and had arranged for funeral outlay, and would go to a Chicago hospital. He expressed a request that after his death his body be taken in charge by the hospital authorities for dissection, as he cared nothing for his body.

Never Ceded to the Government. Tipton, Ind., Feb. 28.—An old man giving his name as Pakagon, and his home as Hastings, Mich., claiming to be an Indian chief, says that a considerable part of northern Tipton county is embraced in a tract of land never ceded to the government by the Indians. He will investigate in adjoining counties and then go to Washington to present his claim to the government.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1893.

Kentucky—Generally fair; north to north-west winds.

KENTUCKY Republicans have lately been making some "queer" talk and doing some "queer" things. They assert that the Goebel Election bill will prove the everlasting ruin of the Democratic party, and yet they have bitterly opposed the measure and fought it at every step. All this is proof of one of two things,—they are either lying or else have fallen in love with Democracy.

THE SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC.

The smallpox in Tennessee is bringing out some points of peculiar interest. A Memphis paper says that at one place where the epidemic was officially diagnosed, three physicians said it was smallpox and three said it was not. Five physicians being added to the corps of experts, two of them said it was smallpox and three declared it was not. Another expert was called to sit on the case and pronounced it to be smallpox beyond all doubt. Finally, to the great relief of the community, the faculty reached a definitive diagnosis of "chicken pox" and that not of a raging variety.

A telegram from Jellico says that Dr. McCormack, of the State Board of Health, has recently made an official examination of the cases in that locality, and declares the disease to be smallpox. He has called in the guards from the outskirts of the city and placed them around the pest-stricken quarters. He has also ordered a pest house to be built and all expenses to be borne by the county and State. Under penalty of fine and imprisonment "all persons" are to be vaccinated within five days. There are said to be about forty-three cases in the Jellico district—the disease being confined to the negroes. There have been no deaths; the disease is very mild; no patient has yet taken to his bed, and the general characteristics of smallpox have been wanting in every case. It is certainly a mild and engaging sort of epidemic; it ought to be cultivated with the utmost care, and vigilant sanitary guards should be stationed around every suspected house. And speaking of "guards," one of our friends is reminded of Jim Fiek's reply when asked for a subscription by a delegation from his native town in Vermont. "What do you want with it?" said Jim.

"We want to put a fence around the graveyard," was the response.

"The devil!" exclaimed Jim. "Why, there is no need of that. The fellers on the inside can't get out, and I'll be d—d if the fellers on the outside want to get in."

Nevertheless, if there is an epidemic that doesn't kill, it ought to be guarded with great care. Health comes high, but we must have it.

SCHOOL BOOK BILL.

Brounston's Substitute Adopted by the Senate—Turnpike Guards.

In the State Senate Saturday the Chinn school-book bill was taken up in the Senate the first thing, and the amendment to except first, second and third class cities was voted down. The Brounston substitute, providing for county uniformity in school books, was adopted by a vote of 17 yeas to 16 nays.

The vote on the passage of the bill as amended by the substitute was yeas 17, nays 16, and the bill was passed.

The bill to change the Third and Eleventh Congressional districts by taking Cumberland and Monroe counties from the Third and adding them to the Eleventh, and taking Metcalfe County from the Eleventh and adding it to the Third, was passed.

Will Henry Jones, Rep., worked himself into a towering rage over what he termed unfair treatment in passing the bill, but the Chair hammered him into silence, and told him that owing to the disturbed condition of his (Jones) mind at present he would overlook the insinuation about the Chair's unfair ruling.

The House bill to repeal the sections of the anti-mob bill, which compels the County Judge to appoint guards when demanded, was passed by a vote of 21 yeas to 11 nays, and a motion to reconsider was tabled.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store.

LOCAL OPTION BILL.

Provisions of the Measure Passed by the State Senate Last Friday.

One of the most important local option bills ever introduced in the Legislature was passed by the Senate Friday by a vote of 21 to 11. It was introduced by Senator A. D. Roberts, and proposes to make the county a unit in all local option elections.

The bill which proposes amendments to the present law provides that upon application by written petition filed on the first day of a regular term of the county court, signed by a number of legal voters in the territory to be affected, equal to twenty-five per cent. of the votes cast in the said territory at the last preceding general election, it shall be the duty of the Judge of the County Court, in such county, at the next regular term of the County Court, after receiving said petition, to make an order on his order book directing an election to be held in the said county, or in any city, town, district, or precinct therein, as the case may be, on some day named in said petition, not less than sixty nor more than ninety days after said petition is lodged with the Judge of said court, which order shall direct the Sheriff or other officer of said county who may be appointed to hold said election, to open a poll at each and all of the voting places in said county, city, town, district or precinct, as the case may be, on said date, for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of said county, city, town, district, or precinct, who are qualified to vote at elections for county officers, upon the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein. After said order shall have been made, and until the entry of the certificate of the canvassing board in the order book of the County Court showing the result of the said election, no license for the sale of spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors within said territory shall be issued.

It is expressly provided that in any election held under this act the vote of the larger territory shall always control, as against the vote of any smaller section of territory contained therein; that is to say: When the vote of an entire county is taken such county vote shall prevail and control as to every city, town, district and precinct within such county, and when the vote of any city, town or district within a county is taken, such vote shall prevail and control as to every precinct within such city, town, or district, as the case may be. But in no case shall the vote of any city, town, district, or precinct prevail or control as against the vote of a larger territory of which said city, town, district, or precinct is a part. And the County Judge shall not order a separate election to be held in any territory at or before the time that a vote in a larger territory, of which it is a part, has been ordered to be held.

One clause prohibits common carriers from carrying liquors into prohibited territory.

The third section provides that "if at any election for the entire county, it shall be found that a majority of the legal votes cast at said election are in favor of the sale, barter or loan of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, then in that event it shall not be lawful to sell, barter or loan any such liquors in any portion of said county where such sale, barter or loan has been prohibited by special act of the Legislature, but such act shall continue in force as if no election had been held."

THE ELECTION BILL.

It Was Passed by the House Saturday and Now Goes to the Governor.

In the Legislature Saturday all interest was centered in the House proceedings on account of the fight over the Goebel election bill. The opposition commenced dilatory tactics at once when Representative Trimble offered a resolution to take the bill from the Committee on Statutes. After a few dilatory speeches and motions Speaker Beckham ruled that debate on such a resolution was out of order, and directed the vote to be taken. It resulted 55 yeas to 42 nays. The debate on the bill then began.

At 12 o'clock Representative Chinn moved that the orders of the day be postponed and the session be extended till the election bill was disposed of. This caused great excitement, and a dozen men were shouting for recognition and shaking their fists.

Mr. Tracy, of Covington, shouted: "Will the Chair stultify himself by refusing to recognize a member of the House?"

Speaker Beckham's reply could be heard above the din, as follows: "The Chair will not forget that he is a gentleman even if the member from Covington does."

The vote to extend the session was carried by a vote of 53 to 39, amid the cheers of the friends of the bill, and the debate proceeded.

Mr. Orr offered a number of amendments, and the yeas and nays were demanded on each one, but all were voted down. At 3:30 o'clock, after a continuous session of over five hours, a direct vote on the bill was reached and it passed by 57 to 42. Seventeen members, besides the 25 Republicans, voted against the bill, but part of these 17 were Populists.

The bill must now be enrolled and read in both the Senate and House, and then goes to the Governor, who has the right to hold a bill ten days without approving or disapproving it. He will certainly veto the bill, and the question will then be whether the opposition can keep it from passing over the veto or not before the session ends. March 15th is the last day of the session, and taking out the Governor's ten days, there is not much margin left for delays, especially as the three Commissioners provided for under the bill must be elected this session. The friends of the measure are confident of ultimate success.

POSTMASTER MATHEWS.

The Louisville Post Publishes a Handsome Cut and Complimentary Sketch of Him.

[Louisville Post]

Clarence Matthews, the newly appointed postmaster at Maysville, is an old Centre College boy, who has taken a high stand in the Republican party of his section of the State, and his appointment by President McKinley, at Congressman Pugh's request, is a fine tribute to his worth.

Mr. Matthews is thirty years old. He was married five years ago to Miss Watson, and has a bright young child. When twenty-eight years old he was elected Chairman of the Mason County Republican organization, and it was through this body that his recommendation for postmaster was sent to Mr. Pugh. He is a Sir Knight. He is an all round good fellow, who goes into office with the best wishes of both Republicans and Democrats of Maysville.

To Whom It May Concern.

"SIMPLY IMMENSE,"

Is Joe Grimes, An Ex-Maysvillian, the Largest Wheelman in the World.

[Lexington Herald.]

Joe Grimes, the largest wheelman in the world, is in the city. He arrived here Thursday afternoon at 5:20 over the C. and O. from Roanoke, Va., and is at the Phoenix.

The man is simply immense. Few people in Lexington have ever seen his equal as to size. The Herald reporter who called on him at his room at the Phoenix Thursday night expected to see a large man, but he was astonished at the proportions of the man that welcomed him.

Joe Grimes is 28 years of age and weighs 555 pounds. He is six feet, four inches in height and perfectly solid. His waist measure is 64 inches, breast measure 62 inches. The circumference of his leg at thigh is 44 inches, at the calf 26 inches. All of his wearing apparel is made to order.

Grimes is an expert cyclist. His record for half a mile is 1:10. His largest run is 84 miles, which he made in ten hours, including an hour's stop for dinner. He has no trouble in mounting his wheel, and finds it an easier means of locomotion than walking. He was born in Ohio and raised in Fleming and Mason counties in this State. At the age of eight years he weighed 186 pounds, at twelve 226, at sixteen 496. He reached the maximum of his weight last June, tipping the beam at 576 pounds.

He learned to ride a wheel about five years ago, and for nearly that long has represented the Cleveland Wheel Company. He rides one of their wheels, travels in a bicycle suit and has been nearly all over the world, having made two trips to Europe.

COMMITTEE'S APPEAL.

Maysville Property Owners Asked to Aid Washington Fire Company—Subscriptions to Date.

The following is self-explanatory:
To the Property Holders and Citizens of Maysville: On Sunday morning, January 30th, the Washington Fire Company lost by fire their home together with the opera house upon which they depended for their support and upon which our citizens depended for an amusement hall. In the destruction of the building there went up in smoke and flame the hard earnings of the company, covering a period of forty-eight years and amounting to over $12,000. They are now without shelter and without a single dollar—nothing left save their honor. The firemen of our city have always been faithful to duty in saving your property, and upon many occasions have saved your city from total destruction. It is now proposed, and due them, to rebuild their home, and for this purpose a subscription has been started and a liberal amount secured. Will you be one to assist in this effort by a subscription? Respectfully,
THOMAS A. DAVIS,
ALEX. CALHOUN,
J. D. DYE,
WM. H. COX,
HORACE J. COCHRAN.

Every property owner in the city is directly interested in this matter, and a liberal response to this appeal will enable the company to begin the work of rebuilding as soon as spring opens.

If you have not subscribed and desire to do so, send your name either to the BULLETIN or to any of the above committee, stating amount.

SPRINGDALE.

Charles Vawter and Wm. Phillips, two young Bible students from the University at Lexington, came down Friday to visit relatives and friends and held a few days meeting at Bethany Church on Cabin Creek. Vawter spoke Saturday night and Phillips Sunday morning, but when the young men reached the church Sunday night they found the "sanhedrin" of this vicinity in possession of the house, and for one hour and a half the council held the floor and forbade young Phillips entering the pulpit, subjecting him to the humiliation of listening to a tirade of abuses, after which young Phillips preached a fine gospel sermon, and announced that young Vawter would speak on Monday night. After the meeting was dismissed young Vawter went to the "chief priests" and asked if there would be any objection to his using the pulpit Monday night, saying that if there would be any strife he would not come. He was assured by the council that he was perfectly welcome to the pulpit, and would receive their hearty support. When on Monday night a large audience gathered at the church they found it locked by two iron bars riveted on the door and locked together with a lock. Yet these young men had neither ever had a smile against their fair names, and would not have received such treatment anywhere else on the face of the earth. A large audience of church members standing in a snow storm with the mercury 10° below freezing looked out of a house of worship their own money had built, because forsooth they tossed not high, etc. A kind neighbor offered his house nearby. Thither the audience repaired and listened to a very good sermon, and organized a church with the following officers: Alex. Truesdell and C. P. Vawter, Elders; Wm. Wilson, Lawson Rash, James Drake and Clarence Applegate, Deacons; W. S. Tully, Clerk; Wm. Phillips, Pastor. There was one addition to the new church that night,—a very estimable young lady.

The camel is a beast of great strength and endurance. Nothing hurts it until the proverbial "last straw" is added to its burden. The human digestive system is very much like a camel. It is really astonishing how much abuse it will stand. Sometimes, however, something worse than usual will be eaten, and will go through the stomach into the bowels, and there it will stick—that's constipation. Nine-tenths of all human sickness is due to constipation. Some of the simple symptoms are coated tongue and foul breath, dizziness, heartburn, flatulence, salivaceous, distress after eating, headaches and lassitude. A little thing will cause constipation, and a little thing will relieve it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a certain cure for constipation. They are tiny, sugar coated granules, mild and natural in their action. There is nothing injurious about them. Sold by druggists.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:
New tobacco sold up to $22.75 during the past week, the highest price of the season. The market in general was strong, everything being readily taken by the buyers and at satisfactory prices to shippers. The sales consist, to a considerable extent, of farmers' packing. Country dealers have commenced to hang their purchases, the offerings will probably not be as heavy as they have been, and we are in hopes that old stock will now take its turn. The latter has been doing very well when we consider that the average quality of the breaks is not much over medium.

Stocks of old have not changed much during the two months of the present year, the disposition being to hold what remains of the same until the shortness of the new crop shall make it self felt. Prices have slowly improved since the first week in January, and are this week on some grades almost as high as during the best time of last year.
Receipts are large for the time of the year, but apt to fall off very materially before long, because the reports are quite general that the crop is quickly passing out of the country. There is certainly not very much left in the hands of the farmers.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Mrs. J. W. Branel, who departed this life at 12:50 o'clock a. m., on Sunday, February 6th, 1898, at her home near Taylor's Mill, in the twenty-fifth year of her life.
The death of this lovely Christian woman was one of the saddest recent events of the community. Though leaving behind her husband and four children, one a babe one week old, and being surrounded with all heart could wish in this world to make her happy which she always was, she said as she was dying, "I would not come back for ten thousand worlds like this." Her condition had been critical for a couple of days, although the attending physicians and ministering friends still hoped she would rally and recover, but her work on earth had been faithfully completed, and she was called home amidst her shouting, singing and rejoicing. While she was still being ministered unto, she gave up hope of recovery, and called for her husband and told him she was going home to Jesus, and then called her household and friends who were present to her bedside and gave them comforting advice, requesting all to lead Godly lives and meet her in heaven. She said "my race is almost ended, and it is all right," and in speaking of Heaven she said "I can hardly wait until I get there, I am happy on the way."
When her friends who were standing at her bedside thought she was breathing her last she began clapping her hands and shouting "Glory, glory, hallelujah!" and then sang one verse after another, the last being "Blessed Assurance."
She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Orangeburg, and was converted to God in 1886 and her dying words were, "Don't let them rebel,—conversion." She was a faithful and useful worker in the vineyard of the Lord. The husband has lost a loving wife, the children an affectionate mother, the many friends a noble associate, though their loss has been a great gain, and she has gone from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant.

STEWART COLE, who accidentally shot himself at Dover, is recovering. His right leg had to be amputated above the knee.

The Coal You Didn't Order

Is what got for you a cold reception at home. If you want to have "a hot time" at your house twenty-four hours in the day use SEMI-CANAL COAL. It burns clean and not too fast; throws out a steady, strong heat and holds fire all night. Take a trial order to-morrow—and when you order a load you'll get FULL WEIGHT everytime, being one of the things we are very particular about.
